Fifth annual *LifeScape*TM magazine now in circulation & on-line

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO --- The fifth annual edition of the *LifeScape*TM magazine showcasing what St. Charles County has to offer businesses, residents, and visitors is now hitting the streets and is also available on-line, officials with the Economic Development Center of St. Charles County and Partners for Progress of Greater St. Charles said today.

Efforts are underway to distribute 25,000 copies of the magazine which is published each year by the EDC and the PFP in cooperation with Gateway Creative. Click here to view the on-line version of this popular community publication.

With more than 80 colorful pages, *LifeScape*TM 2010 provides an overview of the local business community, housing, parks and recreation, shopping, dining, lodging, education, healthcare, public utilities, local attractions, and much more.

“This premier magazine is a one-stop resource showing why St. Charles County continues to be a great place for growing your business and your life,” said EDC President and CEO Greg Prestemon, thanking all those who advertised in the annual publication and helped with its creation.

Free copies of *LifeScape*TM can be picked up in St. Charles County at local city halls and county government offices, chambers of commerce, hospitals, hotels, branches of the St. Charles City-County Library District, St. Charles Community College, Lindenwood University, the Greater St. Charles Convention and Visitors Bureau, Foundry Art Centre, St. Peters Rec-Plex, select banks and restaurants, and the EDC offices.
