

DISCOVER!370

For Immediate Release - June 8, 2010

For More Information:

Julie Powers, D370 Chair
636-477-6600 ext 1305

Nadine Boon, D370 Vice Chair
636-949-3234

Scott J. Drachnik, D370 Treasurer
636-441-6880 ext. 243

DISCOVER! 370 announces "Broker's Bonus Program"

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO --- To spur further interest and activity along the Highway 370 corridor in St. Charles County, the civic group DISCOVER! 370 is announcing a $1,000 broker's bonus program that begins July 1, 2010.

Bonuses will be awarded to the procuring brokers on four transactions that close starting July 1, 2010 while funds last along the Highway 370 corridor in St. Charles County, Missouri. Qualifying transactions must involve leasing or selling commercial space of 10,000-square-foot or larger, or a commercial property sale of 2 acres or more.

Eligible business parks for the bonus program include Premier 370 in St. Peters, Fountain Lakes Commerce Center, New Town at St. Charles, the New Town Gateway District, Elm Point Business Park, Merz Farm, the 370 Corporate Center, Truman Business Center and Truman Crossing Business Park.

Geoff Orf of Gateway Commercial presenting business opportunities along Highway 370 in St. Charles County.

"Here's a chance for commercial brokers in the region to help grow the corridor, the local economy, and their pocketbook through the Discover 370 broker's bonus program," said Julie Powers, chair of DISCOVER! 370.

Formed in 2000, the regional civic group DISCOVER! 370 has been spearheading efforts to promote business opportunities along the burgeoning Highway 370 corridor linking St. Charles and St. Louis Counties. Current members of the group include the cities of St. Charles and St. Peters, the Economic Development Center of St. Charles County, Gateway Commercial - Cushman & Wakefield, MB Properties, New Frontier Bank, Whittaker Homes, The Millstone Company, Cassidy Turley, and AT&T Missouri.

For more information about DISCOVER! 370 and the broker's bonus program, click here.

###